

Cayden Paillette
9-1-16
6th grade

The Game Changer

Jorge Posada was an incredible person on field and especially off the field. Posada was born on August 17, 1971. He has a wife, daughter, and a son. His son suffers from craniosynostosis, and because of that, he and his wife established The Jorge Posada Foundation to help children with craniosynostosis, a birth defect that affects skull growth. Jorge Posada was an incredible baseball player with outstanding stats and a 17-year career with the Yankees.

On field Jorge Posada was a marvelous player. He made his major league debut on September 4, 1995. He contributed to his team's World Series win in 1998, 1999, and 2000. Posada retired in 2012 with a 17-year career. He retired with a .273 average, 275 home runs, and 1,065 RBIs. Jorge Posada played 1,829 games all with the Yankees.

Posada isn't only an outstanding athlete, but he is also an outstanding person. Posada and his wife, Laura, established The Jorge Posada Foundation for other children who suffer from craniosynostosis. They established the foundation in 2000. That same year Jorge Posada received the Thurman Munson award for his professional and charity work.

Jorge Posada made an impact for a lot of children who suffer from craniosynostosis. He inspired other athletes to be amazing on field and off field. Posada also inspired other people to think about others and not only themselves. Posada also inspired other because of the Jorge Posada Foundation. He was an example to others on the field and off the field.

Posada is an inspirational athlete who had an excellent 17-year career with the Yankees. His charitable work with children who are impacted by crainiosynostosis serves as an inspiration to others. He is an amazing player on field and off field because he thinks about others and not only himself. Jorge posada is currently retired from the league, at the age of 45 and lives with his wife and two children.

Work Cited

“Biography.com” Bio.com. A&E Television Networks, n.d. Web. 18 Aug. 2016 .

<<http://www.biography.com/people/jorge-posada-1893407>.